FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK: GUIDELINES FOR RECEIVING COMMUNION

On the Feast of the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) it is good for us to review the guidelines for receiving Communion.

Catholics fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when they receive Holy Communion in fulfillment of Christ's command to "Eat His body and drink His blood."

In order to be disposed properly to receive Communion, communicants should not be conscious of grave sin, have fasted for one hour, and seek to live in charity and love with their neighbours. Persons conscious of grave sin must first be reconciled with God and the Church through the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession). A frequent reception of this Sacrament is encouraged for all.

We welcome to our celebration of the Eucharist, those Christians who are not fully united with us. It is a consequence of the sad division in Christianity that we cannot extend to them a general invitation to receive Communion. Catholics believe that the Eucharist is an action of the celebrating community. Reception of the Eucharist by Christians not fully united with us would imply a oneness which does not yet exist, and for which we must all pray. Catholics should not receive communion in Protestant churches either, even if the invitation is extended to do so. Those not receiving Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and one another. They may present themselves for a blessing with arms crossed over their chest. We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus. While we cannot extend to them an invitation to receive Communion, we do invite them to be united with us in prayer.
